FEDERAL COURT DRAWS A CROWD

The Grand Jury Begins Labors.
Will be Engaged for Several Days.

PENSION AGENTS INDICTED

Sullivan and Carroll to be Tried on Two Counts—Cases Set.

The spring term of the United States Circuit and District Courts, which began yesterday, attracted to this city a cloud of witnesses and ventriloquists, and presented a scene of unwonted liveliness around the usually quiet court building.

A grand jury was empaneled yesterday with Mr. F. C. Ebel, of this city, as foreman and after being sworn immediately entered upon its inquisition. In the evening the grand jury made a partial report and was adjourned until this morning when it will resume their labors. The report made yesterday afternoon was as follows:

United States vs. Levi C. Sullivan and Charles A. Carroll; falsely assuming to be pension agents of the United States; a true bill.

United States vs. Charles A. Carroll, falsely assuming to be a United States pension agent; a true bill.

United States vs. Levi C. Sullivan, falsely personating a pension agent of the United States; a true bill.

Wanted Their Money.

A large number of negro witnesses from Fluvanna county had been called to testify in these cases, and they overran the corridors and drifted into the clerk's office. They were waiting to claim their mileage and attendance.

The grand jury has a great deal of work to do, and has yet hardly fairly begun its inquisition, which promises to last several days. There are half a dozen postoffice cases to be inquired into. The most widely known is the Manassas Bank robbery, five or six alleged experts being detained on suspicion of implication therein.

The petit jury will report for service to-day, and the trial of cases will be begun.

The Circuit Court docket was called yesterday and the following civil cases set for the dates named:

R. H. Wright vs. J. N. Gorman, an action for debt; set for to-day.

William Ramsey vs. the Richmond Locomotive Works, a retrial; set for April 10th.

Samuel H. Cottrell and Son vs. the Smokeless Fuel Company; an action for debt; set for April 11th.

William Harrah by Irving E. Campbell, for, etc., vs. the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway Company; argument on demurrer April 14th; trial April 15th.

Kidney Trouble Disappearing.

Now Recognized to be Bright's Disease—Fearful Death List.

A few years ago many deaths were reported from "Inflammation of the Bowels," Appendicitis is now known to be the real trouble.

A similar change has come in Kidney Disease. It is now disappearing into Bright's Disease.

In 1890 the census reported deaths from Bright's Disease, over half were recognized as Bright's Disease.

In 1890 of the 37,549 deaths that year from Kidney Disease, over half were recognized as Bright's Disease.

In 1890 of the 63,612 deaths, 65,748 (over nine-tenths) were known to be Bright's Disease.

Thus the simple thing we innocently refer to as Kidney Trouble is now recognized as the commonest symptom of Bright's Disease.

The worry and strain of the American life is ruinous to the Kidneys and Bright's Disease is sweeping the country. Look at this appalling increase in the deaths from Bright's Disease taken from the census.

NEWS GATHERED FROM SOUTHSIDE

Fire Commissioners Met Last Night, and Elected Two Runners.

STORM VISITS THE CITY

Streets Given Good Washing. Councilman Pettit Is Encouraged.

Manchester Bureau, Times-Dispatch, No. 1102 Hull Street. The Board of Fire Commissioners met last night and transacted regular monthly business. The pay-roll and bills were approved, and the board went into the election of firemen. W. J. Osterbird was re-elected as a runner, and L. D. Waymack was chosen to succeed A. W. Farley. The report of the chief recommended the purchase of more apparatus and it is quite likely the Council will adopt the recommendation.

Severe Storm.
The storm last night about 11 o'clock flooded the streets and the electric light caused some damage to the telephone wires. No serious damage was done, and the streets were well washed, with lots of mud as the result, an object lesson to those who do not approve of the rain.

Mr. Wells Declines.
Mr. Ernest Wells has declined to appear as a candidate for the Legislature. This announcement leaves the field thus far to Mr. R. S. Rives. The friends of Mr. Wells Pulliam expect to be able to place his name before the voters in a day or two. Mr. Pulliam has the matter under consideration, and has held back mainly to give Mr. Wells time to consider the proposition.

Personals and Briefs.
The Powhatan Land Company of Manchester was chartered in the Corporation Court yesterday, with a capital of from $5,000 to $20,000. The officers are: President, E. S. Boshier, of Richmond; secretary, George O. Rindel, of Manchester; treasurer, George E. Gary, of Manchester; and, A. Royall, of the company will do a general land business.

The Almshouse and Cemetery Committees will meet to-night.

Revival services will continue all week at Stockton Street Church.

The April term of the Circuit Court of Chesterfield county will begin on Monday.

The Ladies' Aid Society of Clifton Street Church will meet at the home of Mrs. J. M. Gregory, this afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Mrs. J. W. Burk and Miss Annie O'Brien are visiting Mrs. F. L. Burk.

Five negroes were fined by the mayor yesterday for being drunk. The per capita was $50.

Miss William S. Morris and Mr. William E. Bethel were married Monday night by Rev. Dr. Criddle, at the home of the bride's parents, No. 1319 Porter Street.

A marriage license has been issued to George F. Paul, of Richmond, and Miss Pearl O. Gordon.

MR. WATSON ADVANCED.

Former Richmond Man Going Forward in Street Car Life.

The Norfolk Virginian-Pilot has this interesting item about a former Richmond man and a brother of Mr. H. L. Watson, of this city.

Superintendent W. P. Watson, of the Berkley Street Railway Company, will be transferred to the Norfolk Railway and Light Company division on the 17th instant, and promoted to the office of assistant superintendent.

Mr. Watson is an experienced and efficient railway man, which has been the result of his long service in the Berkley. He took charge of the line here in January under most unfavorable circumstances.

The road has been improved, the service is satisfactory and Mr. Watson's administration has been creditable to himself as well as acceptable to the patrons. During their brief stay here, he and his family have made many friends, who regret his departure.

Mr. Watson will be succeeded by J. B. N. Cardozo, who is now assistant engineer of the Virginia Passenger and Power Company, of Richmond, Va.

Following the announcement that Superintendent W. P. Watson, of the Berkley Street Railway Company, will be transferred to the Norfolk division of the Norfolk Railway and Light Company, comes an outbreak of disapproval.

One of Berkley's foremost business men, who is prominently connected with the Board of Trade and Business Men's Association, said last night that he thought it would be a case of injustice to the people to remove Superintendent Watson at this time, when he had just begun to get the road and rolling stock in good condition, and to give the people good service. Said the indignant gentleman:

"Berkley has had the small end of the proposition long enough, and he thought it high time that the people should be treated with the same consideration so far as ability to serve them is concerned as Norfolk."

Saying this, he did not mean to cast any reflection on Mr. Watson's proposed successor, but he meant to say that Mr. Watson had given satisfaction and he did not think that a change should be thrust on the people. He said the waiting-room and Thirteenth Street station had been improved and made decent for ladies to stop in, and there are now two waiting-rooms instead of one.

Several others were heard to speak against the change.

Big Prices for Pies.
Miss Marie Mullen entertained a number of her young friends in the home of Mrs. Briel, No. 121 North Twenty-fifth Street, Thursday night at a delightful party. The evening was pleasantly spent, including in music and in playing various parlor games. The many tempting and gaily decorated pies, which were given to the young ladies, were auctioned off and brought fabulous prices. At a late hour refreshments were served in abundance, after which the merry young folks departed. Those present were: Misses Cora Phillips, Ella Mullen, Elsie Koch, Iva and Estell Schauf, Florence Maynard, Clara Loving, Eugenie Conhill, Maggie Loving, Gertrude Acree, Lottie Wright, Bertie Watkins, Annie Crow, Mamie Tompkins, Carrie Mullen, Miss Duggins, Mrs. Kitzler, Mrs. Mary Briel and Messrs. Ernest Schauf, Leslie Carter, Willie Crow, Willie Pendleton, Henry Loving, Charlie Hayward, Arthur James, Henry Koch, Eddie Briel, Charles Briel, Dr. George Gay, Mr. Martin and Mr. Bailey.

The Produce Market.
The prompt and regular arrival of vegetables from the South helps to make the produce market a little lively. Virginia products have ceased to come in except eggs and chickens. The former consideration, and has held back mainly to give Mr. Wells time to consider the proposition.

The market is well supplied with lettuce, tomatoes, new potatoes, asparagus, cauliflower and beans, and they all come from way down South, none coming from Virginia gardens yet.

The market is also well stocked with California fruits. Northern apples are also plentiful and cheap enough.

The Leaf Tobacco Market.
Receipts of loose leaf tobacco on the market were very small yesterday, and the sales did not last much more than one hour. The offerings were mostly railroad tobacco and were of the common grades. The farmers in the sun-curing belt are too busy with their plows to bother about bringing the remnant of the crop to market.

The indications are that to-day's sales will also be very small. First sale will be at 10 o'clock, second at 2 o'clock, third at 4 o'clock and fourth at 6 o'clock.

Conditions in Virginia.
Following are comments made on March weather and crop conditions in Virginia by the Washington office of the Weather Bureau: "Month generally favorable for crops. In a very many cases, the fall-sown grasses doing nicely; farm work late, but some spring crops seeded and ready to plant. Plowing under way since 20th and soil in fine condition; gardening begun; pear and cherry trees blooming. In the higher counties, fruit prospects good."

A New Winton Automobile.
Mr. Henry B. Baskerville has received his new four-cylinder Winton. It is finished in silver gray, with red and gold stripes, and upholstered in red with brass trimmings. It is a very handsome car, and will seat four or five people. It is the latest thing in automobile construction.

Progress on Gas-Holder.
The Committee on Light met last night and after the transaction of routine work, the committee heard a report from the superintendent of the gas holder, now located in the West End, to the effect that the work was progressing favorably.

Comes to Fairmont.
Dr. W. W. Nelson, of Matthews county, has settled in Fairmont, where he will hereafter practice medicine. For several years Dr. Nelson has practiced at Fox Hill. For some time past he has been one of the resident physicians at the National Soldiers' Home, where he placed his residence to come to Fairmont.

He is a man of the highest standing and of great ability.

Had No Quorum.
There was no quorum of the Committee on Markets last night, and the committee was called again for Friday night at 7:30 o'clock.

LETTER FROM A SOLDIER.
Confederate Lying Before Petersburg Writes of the Hard Times.

Upon the occasion of a visit last week to the abandoned mansion of the famous old Shaws plantation near Carthage, N. C., Mrs. W. A. Kissam, of North Port, J. L. N. Y., found among old papers scattered over the floor "The Memorandum of the division of the negroes belonging to the estate of C. C. Shaw, February 1, 1865. Every one of the thirty-three slaves is named, with age and value, and then the partition was made among the eleven children.

W. This interesting document was a letter written by C. W. Shaw to his brother, Duncan, as follows: "Camp Fremont, N. Petersburg, Dec. 5, 1862. D. R. Shaw:

"Dear Brother—To-day is so wet, we can't work nor drill. We are in short rations and plenty to do. We commenced building our winter quarters in the same camp where you came to us. I think the plan is tolerable good one. If they would haul the timber for us, but we haul them on our shoulders some one-half mile. These old field boys are not light. The plan is this: the houses are to be sixteen feet each way and two rooms to each chimney, eight in a room, which will take twelve rooms for our company, and it will take a good many logs to complete the houses. I hope by the time we complete them that we may take up our winter quarters in a more comfortable quarter, viz: at home, although I can't see any hope now."

"If peace could be made the day would be a remarkable epoch in our history. Deserting is becoming very common in our army, especially in this regiment. Ten deserted on the night of the second and eleven on the third, making in all twenty-one. At this rate it will not take long to weaken our ranks. They left on the plea that they were not paid enough to eat. Our rations, true, is short. By buying some, we can get along. It will take a good deal of money to buy a lot."

Duncan, I am very much obliged to you for offering to send me money, but we drew last Saturday—sooner than I expected—so if you have not started it yet, you may not. Write soon. C. W. SHAW."
